1. Start with the templates

Print the provided "monster parts" templates on standard 8.5"x11" paper.

You should have one for the spots, the teeth, the dots of the eyes, and one for the horns.

Cut out your paper pieces and organize them by which color felt you will use.

Trace each monster part/circle onto the felt with a fabric marker.

Next, cut out your felt pieces. Be sure to cut inside the lines if you don't want your marker lines to be visible.

2. Let's start gluing

Before you grab the glue gun, decide how you want to lay out your monster parts.

Once you choose your placement, start with the "spots" and pick up one felt piece and glue around the outside edge. Carefully and gently apply the felt to the sweatshirt.

Repeat this process until all the circles have been applied to your sweatshirt.

While you have your glue handy, you can go ahead and add your teeth. The straight edge of each tooth should be glued to the inside edge of the hood. This will make your teeth visible when your hood is up.

3. Add your tentacles!

For this step, first we are going to remove the lenses from those party glasses. We will only be using the lenses for this project.

Lay out the "tentacles" (lenses) on the sleeves, choosing your placement. For ours, we divided our tentacles evenly between our sleeves.

Next, apply a small bead of glue around the outside edge and place each tentacle.

4. Add some eyes

Three ping pong balls make up the eyes. At the front edge of the hood, locate the center seam and glue the first ball there.

Glue an additional ball on either side. Now you have the base for the eyes!

Let's add the eyebrows. For our eyebrows we used a feather boa, but you could use another fuzzy trim. Depending on the fullness of your boa or trim, you may want to add more than one piece to get very full eyebrows. This will be glued to the very top of the eyeballs.

Next, glue the black paper eyeball dots to the eyes.

5. Add some horns

It's the last step! You should have four "horn" pieces.

Place two together and glue one on top of the other with the edges lined up. Repeat for other two pieces.

You will let these dry for a few minutes and then turn them inside out.

Now, stuff with fiber fill. Glue each horn closed.

Decide on placement and glue to the top of the hood.

Your monster is ready!
